Description:

Best-selling author Garth Nix creates a magical world and an intriguing mystery in this new blockbuster series. Seven days. Seven keys. Seven virtues. Seven sins. One mysterious house is the doorway to a very mysterious world -- where one boy is about to venture and unlock a number of fantastical secrets. This is another thrilling, triumphantly imaginative series from Garth Nix, the best-selling author of THE SEVENTH TOWER, SABRIEL, and LIRAEAL.

Arthur is a severely asthmatic 7th grader. But when he finds himself in the woods on the edge of suffocating to death, two Victorian-style men appear and once is tricked into giving the boy a magical key. This key not only saves him from death but entangles him in a conspiracy between supernatural forces going back tens of thousands of years. It starts slow. And Arthur spends too long with nothing explained, being pushed around by strange forces. But about halfway through the world begins to make sense. And at long last he moves from reactor to having a goal and some power to take steps forward. The last half of the book was good and I'm hoping the second in the series starts with the energy and clarity that we ended with.
